Jean Herve Lorenzi then spontaneously offered to put me in touch with the Pole of competitiveness for the creation of clusters in Africa. We have decided that in the future our stepping stone role will be thanked in return. JEAN HERVE LORENZI PRESIDENT OF THE GLOBAL COMPETITIVENESS POLE TELLS THE EXCLUSIVE TALENT OF MONIQUE MIEGEMOLLE-----

Jean Herve LORENZI, tells us the circumstances of his meeting with Monique MIEGEMOLLE and why and how he identified his talent and his exceptional qualities of spontaneous connection and extreme sympathy so natural. "It's very simple I arrived on a Saturday at a presentation I gave in a group of dinner makers, in front of fifty people. And I arrived from London, and late ... So I talked about the situation of the world economy and I was at the head table and Monique was sitting my neighbour at dinner table and very serious. And then very soon, after I learned that she came from Rwanda, feeling personally affected about the situation of the Rwandan genocide and wondering about the role of the one and others played in that matter...Later on, I asked her to meet the ambassador of Rwanda ... (Monique then very quickly organized this meeting with the ambassador of Rwanda)-----

Since then, I knew, and could assess the unique quality Monique possess and her ability to create relationships of trust and sympathy, at a stance, in a very natural way ! Hence, she enabled me, accompanied with a friend of mine who is a diplomat to meet up with the ambassador of Rwanda. hat is exceptional and the desire and that's definitely which led me to get eager to do things together with Monique. Afterwards I realised that not only she was efficient in creating and amplifying the network, but I saw how sympathetic she was, and I found out that she was coming up form the luxurious real estate dealing with fortunate clients, precisely because she has an exceptional relationship capacity. So the next step, was to introduce Monique to Joelle DURIEUX, for whom it took almost a month to understand and assess the exceptional talent of Monique. So if Monique has been successful in the luxurious real estate so far, she can quite become an expert in the world of the finance and especially the Fintech due to her qualities of relational of exception.-----I insist on this talent that is inexplicable and that I also identified with another Businessman I know living in the United States, who once arrived in a place has this ability to federate around him and to create and generate links and very strong relationships, at stance. And that's what I identified at Monique and why I introduced her to Joelle DURIEUX to launch the Fintech Clusters of the Global Competitiveness Pole. So I helped Monique first, but the most important person, as far as the Fintech clusters are concerned, is Joelle DURIEUX, travelling to Casablanca this week on this matter after being to Barcelona recently.
